HOW TO KEEP UP YOUR PRAYER LIFE ON SUMMER VACATION

Here are ways to stay connected with God when you're taking a break from everything else!

Life tends to slow down in the summer, and the temptation toward laziness (especially in prayer) reaches an all-time high. While vacation presents us with a wonderful and much-needed time to refresh, we shouldn't let our relationship with God fall to the wayside. So, whether you find yourself at the beach or just hanging out at the poolside this summer, follow these tips to keep your spiritual life from taking a vacation.

KEEP IT CONSISTENT

Pick a time each day you like to pray and stick to it, even if you're traveling. Praying at the same time each day helps cement the habit of prayer in your life, and that habit will carry you throughout the whole year.

PRIORITIZE MASS

Getting to Mass while on vacation isn't always easy, but you should at least prioritize Mass on Sundays. When planning your trip, research nearby Catholic churches where you can fulfil your Sunday commitment.

ADD A SPIRITUAL READ TO YOUR LIST

If reading at the beach is your jam, why not pick up a book that will help your spiritual life flourish? We can learn so much about the faith through writings of saints, theologians, and other holy men and women. Adding a spiritual book to your summer reading list edifies both your mind and your soul. It can foster a greater knowledge of God and can help deepen your relationship with Him.

USE YOUR TRAVEL TIME WISELY

Everyone knows that getting there is half the fun! Whether you're flying or taking a good old fashioned road trip, you can use that travel time to deepen your relationship with God. You can pray a family Rosary or nourish your soul with a Catholic podcast.

HAVE A LOVELY AND SAFE HOLIDAY!

PARISH SURGERY

We will no longer be having Parish Surgery every Thursday, since we have found that not many parishioners attend, therefore, if you wish to speak with one of the Priests, please can you let the parish office know (0208 854 0359) so that an appointment can be arranged for you to meet them.
